PAST REVEALS FUTURE

In January 2026, Maison&Objet returns to its roots and celebrates furniture synonymous with craftsmanship and excellence.

In a global context shaken by
the ecological crisis, overconsumption, and
homogenization, the fair responds with a design full of soul! The theme inspiring this edition, PAST REVEALS FUTURE, is masterfully
expressed through four

EXRESSED THROUGH FOUR
THEMATIC TRENDS:
METAMORPHOSIS,
MUTATION, REVISITED
BAROQUE, and NEO FOLKLORE.
True to its DNA,
Maison&Objet connects,
supports, and unveils
inspiring visions of the art of living, inspiring and inviting visitors to experience it through a carefully curated program.

JANUARY 2026: DISCOVER OUR EXCLUSIVE PROGRAMME AND HIGHLIGHTS

TRANSFORMISM

BY HARRY NURIEV

DESIGNER OF THE YEAR
– Hall 3

The very essence of Maison&Objet lies in unveiling inspiring visions and talents that shape the Art of Living today and tomorrow.

Crowned Designer of the Year 2026, Harry Nuriev embraces this honor by crafting a space in January that is a true reflection of his creative spirit, anchored in the ethos of Transformism—his visionary manifesto. Here, everyday objects transcend function to become coveted collectors' pieces. A futuristic narrative unfolds, beautifully echoing the edition's theme, Past Reveals Future, where heritage and innovation dance in harmony.
